STEALY PROGRESS BY ALLIES

OFFICIAL REPORTS DIVERGE WIDELY IN THIER CLAIMS

BOTH ARMIES IN FRANCE CONTENT ARE VICTORIOUS

Fact That Kluck Still Headed North Only Point on Which They Agree

EACH SIDE FURNISHED WITH NEWS IT WANTS

Stated Muscovites Once More Cross German Frontier at Sosocuz

London, Oct. 3.—(Unusual activity in the publicity departments of the German and Austrian army headquarters has furnished an account of the results of current battles differing so radically from those from the camps of their opponents as to render the widely divergent statements irreconcilable.

In regard to the battle of the Aisne there is only a single point on which the French and German reports agree, and that is that General Von Kluck is still in going northward, though at a snail's pace, and that he is so powerful that General Joffre has been obliged to admit that the German commander has been able to force a French detachment from Arras to fall back.

Further south in the neighborhood of Hoge, according to the German staff, the French have been dislodged from their positions, but the French communication declares all the German assaults there were shattered.

Again the German assert that they have fought their way northward and have made substantial advances in the Argonne district and the French counters this by claiming to have made progress there; while on the far eastern end of the line around the river Meuse, the French claim to have driven the last German back across the river and the invaders say they have defeated all attacks of the French in that quarter.

Each side thus is furnished the news it wants to hear. For the neutral observer the only certainty is that these intermittent conflicts along the immense line furnish only a series of small cumulative results which gradually tend in a given direction and to an outcome which will duly be determined when the present process of attrition completes its course.

The Austrian staff report without any details, issued by Field Marshall Folties, give a picture of the Serbian vivid stories of victory, but it is only fair to say that the Serbs are equally emphatic in giving the lie to the Austrian claims.

According to Field Marshall Folties, the process of clearing up the Serbian litter in the province of Bosnia is progressing apace, while the Austrian offensive in Serbia is progressing satisfactorily.

The Serbians and their Montenegrin allies, however, maintain they have Sarajevo, the Bosnian capital, almost in their grasp.

The new army of Emperor Nicholas is on the march and according to the Petrograd general staff the Muscovites once more have crossed the German frontier at Sosocuz and Grazew, Russian Poland.

This is conceivably awkward for the German invaders, who are said to be retreating from the Suvial district.

GERMANS TRY TO ISOLATE ALLIES, FORCE IN NORTH

Violence of Battle Appears Concentrated on Left Wing Near Belgium

ATTEMPT TO BREAK HUMAN BARRIER APPEARS IN VAIN

French Have Steadily and Methodically Progressed, Especially on Right

London, Oct. 3.—(8 a.m.)—Commenting on the status of the battle in northern France the correspondent of the Times at Paris, says:

"The violence of the battle seems to be concentrated for the moment on the left wing which has prolonged itself to a point within 30 or 40 miles of the Belgian border, south of Arras. Through this line the Germans have attempted to break, with the object of isolating the forces of the allies in the north. The combat in this region has been extremely violent but the allies hold the enemy well in spite of their successes by the Germans."

"All along this immense battle line to the right, the left and the center, the enemy has tried to break through in vain. Nowhere have the French yielded. On the contrary, they have steadily and methodically progressed, especially on the right wing. New progress also has been made in the Argonne region."

FINAL DECISION IS NEAR SAYS GERMAN

British Artillery Doing Very Effective Work in Verdun Vicinity

STATES EFFORTS FUTILE Wounded Coming From the Front Are Said to be in Best of Spirits

Berlin, Oct. 3.—A correspondent of the Local Anzeiger, who has witnessed the military operations in the Argonne forest and north of Verdun, telegraphs his paper that the bombardment of Verdun still continues and that much activity at the Verdun railroad station has been noted and there are three captive balloons over the city.

The wounded are coming in from the front in the best of spirits, the correspondent continues. The English artillery is doing very effective work in the Argonne forest and causing much trouble, but the German position is as of iron.

Up to the present time all the efforts of the enemy have been futile. While the developments are slow the correspondent avers it is thought that the final decision is not far off.

The population of the district is starving.

WOMEN AND KIDS SHOOT AT ENEMY FROM THE ROOFS

Russian Guns Literally Mow Down Whole Regiments of Germans

MUSCOVITES COMPELLED RETREAT TO MARIAMPOL

Superior Tactics of Russians Turn Tide and Village Evacuated

London, Oct. 3.—(5:30 a.m.)—The Petrograd correspondent of the Daily Telegraph sends the following description taken from a Kovera just out of the operations from September 8 to 11, when General Rennenkampf retired from east Prussia only to counter the German effort to envelop his left. The account says:

"The German advance echelons efforts to gain possession of the village of Birkenfeld, where the Russians had strongly entrenched themselves, and thus make a breach in the center of the Russian army."

"The scene was indescribably terrible as the Russian guns literally mowed down whole regiments and all German attacks were repulsed."

"In the next village of Darlmen the fight assumed a form which it is difficult for the imagination to grasp. Here the Russians had not merely to deal with the German troops but the entire German population of the village, even the women and children shot from windows, roofs, barns and cellars. The inhabitants had been armed with rifle and mauer platons and the Russian troops in this place were compelled to defend themselves on two fronts."

"Though the German attacks on Verdun were violently repulsed, the Russians were compelled to fall back on Mariampol, northeast of Suvial, owing to another German attempt at a wide enveloping movement."

"To check this the Russians opened an attack from Mariampol, where they had entrenched themselves. The battle lasted two days, September 12 and 13. Around Mariampol the superior tactics of the Russians compelled the German to retire, the latter evacuating three lines of entrenchments."

LABORER HAS TROUBLE WITH "NO-FUNDS" CHECK

A check, with insufficient funds behind it, was the source of much trouble for F. Sheba, a Russian laborer, a few days ago.

Sheba had been working on the grade up near Mirror Landing and receiving the check some months ago, sent it down to Edmonton for safe keeping. The other day he arrived in the city himself and proceeded to get the check. He sent around to the bank to cash it, but found the institution closed, so took the check to a store instead. He bought some merchandise and tendered the document in payment.

Later it was found that the contractor, a person by the name of Murphy, had not sufficient funds in the bank to cover the check. The storekeeper, anxious to get his money, had Sheba arrested on charge of false pretenses and he appeared for trial on Saturday morning.

Magistrate Belcher dismissed the case, stating that in his opinion he thought the accused had no idea the check was valueless when he had it cashed.

CITY GETS THREE MILLION DOLLARS

Imperial Bank Says Loan Is Now Assured—To Be Used to Pay Debts

TWO MEETINGS DURING DAY

Aldermen Finally Get Down to Some Business at the Evening Session

There were two meetings of the city council on Friday. In the afternoon the mayor read a letter from the Imperial bank which stated that the $2,000,000 loan had been negotiated for the city. The purchasers were not mentioned in the letter nor was the rate of interest for the whole amount, although the letter stated at $225,000 per cent would be 4-3-4 per cent.

Mayor McNamara explained this by stating that this loan had been long in the London market just as the war broke out and that while the London people had apparently not seen such a low rate of interest on the whole amount, the rate of 4-3-4 had been set for at least a part of the loan.

"The city will use their four million dollars worth of city debentures as collateral."

It was in the letter that the city will have about $500,000 of the loan money to pay liabilities falling due before the end of the year and the wages. This immediately brought a desire on the part of Aldermen East and May for the city to set aside all wages of civic employees back as previous to September 1. This however was not acted upon and the city will attend upon the regular meeting on Tuesday.

Money for McLeod Block.
Aldermen Calder, Douglas and Smith were absent from the afternoon meeting, but those present agreed upon December 14 as the date for the taking of a debenture on the new block.

Alderman Campbell as chairman of the sinking fund committee asked that the city advance an additional sum to the builders of the McLeod building, which it was hoped to have completed in two weeks. The city has made a loan from the sinking fund on this building of $350,000, ten per cent of this amount, or $35,000, will be withheld, but with the additional sum that it is to be advanced about six per cent, will be withheld instead of ten per cent. Upon assurance from the contractor that the work would be pushed to completion, the council agreed.

Alderman East wanted to appoint a deputy mayor for the next three months and made a motion to appoint Alderman May to the position, but received no support. This started the hot boiling and when Alderman May asked to have the salaries of all civic employees put on their old basis this was also left over till next meeting and Alderman May grabbed his hat and left. This was the beginning of the end and in less time than it takes to tell, council had adjourned until the evening.

Buy at Evening Meeting.
At the evening session the agenda was cleared of many minor matters of defunct Commissioner Booth. In an action for slander, in which Alderman Clarke is actor for the plaintiff, the bill-board bylaw was finally passed.

October 13 was the date set for the setting of the council as a court of review on an assessment for the widening of Fifth street west.

Commissioner Harrison was instructed to prepare a memorandum to be submitted to the legislature to amend the school act as to make it compulsory for all school board capital expenditure bylaws to be submitted to the ratepayers.

Notices of motion were given re the placing of all salaries back at the rate prior to September 1; that the city grant $2,500 to each of the patriotic and relief funds; and that inquiry be made into the condition of all the dependents of all civic employees who have gone to the war.

Doggedly Fighting For Each Step Allies Push Germans Out of France

Claims of Russian Successes Continue to Pour in From Petrograd—No News From Poland Where Muscovites are Waging Big Fight Against Combined Forces of Germany and Austria—Critics Unable to Agree as to Intention of Enemy Regarding Attacks on Antwerp—Many Think Merely Meant to Harass Belgians.

London, Oct. 3.—(10:25 a.m.)—Though the German right is less than 50 miles from the Belgian frontier, never since the outbreak of the war apparently have the people of Great Britain been more reconciled to the idea that the struggle yet to come will be long and terrible.

When the Germans began to retreat, after their rush toward Paris, hope ran high that some master stroke would bring complete rout to the invaders. Now, however, many observers emphasize that even should the so-called battle line be terminated the Germans would only fall back on equally strong entrenchments. There is nothing from the French battle line this morning to indicate a marked change in the situation.

The fiercest fighting apparently still centers on that part of the battle line stretching due north for about 40 miles in an almost straight line from Roye. The vicinity of Albert has been the scene of a battle of the most vigorous nature, where the allies claim progress and, though some incredulous, the latest announcements assured that the remainder of the vast line was quiet with the exception of the front around St. Mihiel, from which the Germans were driven from their southernmost lodgment.

From Petrograd there continues to pour in uninterrupted claims of Russian successes from the front of Galicia, where the Russian army has been victorious against German and Austrian forces at death grips before Cracow has come nothing to indicate which side has taken the first honors of the preliminary skirmishes.

A belated despatch from Copenhagen asserts that Emperor William has recently been at Breslau, where he decided on a four fold offensive movement against Warsaw, Lodz and Galicia. When this was under way, it was noted, he expected to return to the western theatre of war.

From the southeastern tip of Galicia, that is to say, Bukovina, filters news of the advanced Russian forces unheard for days. It was said that the entering of Transylvania was already under way and that a battle between the Austrians and the combined Russian-Serbian forces was an immediate prospect.

British critics seem unable to agree as to whether the recent revival of German activity in Belgium means a serious attempt to take Antwerp or prevent the operations are merely intended to harass the Belgians and prevent them from tampering with the German lines of communications.

Vienna, according to roundabout despatches purporting to emanate from the Austrian capital, is preparing for a siege and there is even talk of removing the seat of government.

The decision of the admiralty to mine a certain area of the North sea has given England a feeling of security. While no alarm has ever been manifested heretofore, the move is held to be a step toward the Dover Straits and the channel without interfering with the southern exit from the Thames or the routes to Ostend, Dunkirk, Calais and Boulogne.

BELGIANS WIN IN SCRAP AT ANTWERP

RUSE WIPES OUT MANY Allowed Enemy to Come Close to Forts Then Dealt Wholesale Death.

London, Oct. 3.—(10:25 a.m.)—A despatch from Antwerp to the Reuters company tells of the fighting around Antwerp.

"The town of Liège was again bombarded by the Germans today and many houses were damaged. Tonight the Belgians with the bayonet replied to the German attack on the fort at Liège, captured 30 prisoners and inflicted severe losses on the Germans.

"The Belgians allowed the enemy to approach Walhem last night. The forts then opened fire compelling the Germans to retire with losses.

"Termonde was also attacked during the night but the Belgians blew up a bridge and repulsed the Germans.

"A Taube aeroplane flew over Antwerp at 4 o'clock this morning, too high for our fire."

YOUR SICK CHILD IS CONSTIPATED! LOOK AT TONGUE

If cross, feverish or bilious give "California Syrup of Figs."

No matter what ails your child, a gentle, thorough laxative should always be the first treatment given.

If your little one is out-of-sorts, half-sick, isn't resting, eating and acting naturally—look, Mother! see if tongue is coated. This is a sure sign of little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with waste. When cross, irritable, feverish, stomach sour, head or has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, sore throat, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated poison, undigested food and sour little gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

Mother can rest easy after giving this harmless "fruit laxative" because it never fails to cleanse the little one's liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach and they thereby lose its pleasant taste. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups printed on each bottle.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."

HATE MINE LAYING BUT FORCED TO DO BY THE ENEMY

MERCHANTMEN WILL BE PROTECTED SAYS REPORT

Papers Agree It Would be Quixotic to Neglect This Defence Longer.

London, Oct. 3.—The admiralty announcement of its decision to lay mines in the North Sea is regarded as the most important feature of the year.

The Chronicle says: "No one can blame Great Britain in this matter. She has only resorted reluctantly and after very long delay to a method of warfare which she has always disliked and depreciated. But it has become evident that no abstention from mine laying on our part will lead the Germans to abstain, and in view of their submarine successes it would be quixotic to neglect this defence which our enemies employ so lavishly.

"One must be sure that the British, unlike the Germans, will comply with international laws; that is, they will be anchored and not be constructed that if their moorings break they become inactive.

CASCARETS FOR COSTIVE BOWELS, SOUR STOMACH, COLD OR HEADACHE

That awful sourness, belching of acid and foul gases, that pain in the pit of the stomach, the heartburn, nervousness, nausea, bloating after eating, feeling of fullness, dizziness and sick headache, means your stomach is sour—your liver is torpid—your bowels constipated. It isn't indigestion—it's biliousness and constipation. Try Cascarets; they sweeten the stomach, remove the sour fermenting food and foul gases, take bile from the liver and carry off the constipated waste matter from the bowels. Then your stomach troubles, headache, bad cold and all such misery ends.

10 Cents. Never gripe or sicken. "CASCARETS WORK WHILE YOU SLEEP."

What the Theater Press Agents Say

THIEVES STEAL FROM MORE THIEVES—EMPIRE

"Stop Thief," the attraction at the Empire theater the last half of next week, is a farce in three acts from the pen of Carly Moore and was one of the big New York successes of last season. The plot of the piece deals with kleptomaniacs. A kleptomaniac is defined by Webster as a wealthy person of absent minded tendencies and morbid impulses. The mania usually demonstrates itself by the victim's being discovered in making a collection of valuable articles that do not belong to him. When the poor man is caught doing the same thing he is arrested as an ordinary thief. That is a detail, however. There are two kleptomaniacs and a real crook in "Stop Thief." One of the kleptomaniacs is a millionaire and the other is his prospective son-in-law. The bride-to-be knows that her father is afflicted with a mania to steal but she is ignorant of the fact that her husband is also. Into this household a real thief is smuggled by a new maid and the plot thus entangled in the first act calls for the presence of a battalion of policemen, as one valuable article after another disappears in the most mysterious manner. In the search of the culprits many funny situations are evolved which keep up a succession of laughs throughout the entire three acts.

SHOULD BE SOME BIG HITS PANTAGES FOR WEEK

A well balanced bill comes to Pantages theater next week. Music will be the predominating feature and wrapped up with it will be comedy and acrobatics. The headliner for the week is Staley, Birbeck and Staley in a musical novelty act, entitled "The Musical Blacksmith." This derives its interest from two factors. First, the genuine musical capabilities of the performers, playing on various and unusual instruments; second, the lightning-like change from the first scene to the second which takes place in less than two seconds. The curtain rises on a country blacksmith shop, with the performers busy on anvils and different implements of the surroundings and then, as quick as the wink of an eye, the scene is transformed into a handsome furnished drawing room with the restorable blacksmith in conventional evening dress. How the complete change takes place in the short time allotted for it is a mystery that no one so far has been able to solve. The entire change reminds one of the magic of the far east. A rough, black anvil is seen to bound over the stage and in its place appears a well upholstered divan. From the floor of the house the change seems incredible and to those in the back it is wonderful. The act is sure to make a hit.

The added attraction will give the feature attraction a hard fight for premier honors. "The Lemon City Land Agent" and company will present the dramatic force creation, entitled "Bully's Tombstone." This is a condensed version of a three act farce, entitled "Bully," which the Shuberts presented several years ago and starred Edgar Allan-Staley. The principal is a clever actor and works with such speed that he keeps the audience in continuous laughter. His vehicle is good. Throughout the cast his work has been praised by such well known and clever dramatic critics as W. Winters and Acton Davies and he will please Pantages patrons.

More fun will be supplied by Quinn and Mitchell. This couple will be in a comedy skit, entitled "The Lemon City Land Agent." Anyone who has bought real estate without looking the ground over and later found it was mainly rock and swamp will appreciate this skit. It is filled with good jokes and Quinn and Mitchell can be depended upon to get the most out of their material.

The acrobatic turn on the bill will be taken care of by The Three Kratons.

This trio played over the time last season and scored a hit with their rolling hoops and should repeat again this time.

The management has offered several clever monologues lately, but next week appear a new one, Joe Lanigan, who will present "Prescriptions in Contentment." Lanigan, by his education, should be putting up prescriptions in a drug store, but he accidentally went on the stage and now he is giving his knowledge to audiences for enjoyment. He should make another hit.

The Pantages with timely war views will conclude the performance.

LAUGHS TO COME OFTEN

NEXT WEEK AT LYCEUM
Parce comedy will have its chance next week at the Lyceum theater when the well known Lyceum stock company will present "The Arabian Nights," a three-act whirl of fun from the pen of the late Sidney Grundy, perhaps the most prolific author of farce comedies of which England has ever boasted. To enumerate the various comedies and farce comedies written by Mr. Grundy would be to include in the list every worth-while English comedy except Sir Arthur Wing Pinero's "The Amazons."

"The Arabian Nights" relates the amusing troubles of one Arthur Humington, who, among other things, deceives his wife into believing she is "the one and only" and by this self-deception secures freedom long enough to visit a feverish night club where the lights burn brightly and joy is confined. What happens after Humington makes his first incursion into the realm of sedition, siphons and popular rage is too good to be true. There are more laughs in this farce comedy than back-baited in a militant suffrage insurance, which is some quantity of giggles.

William Yale, who needs no introduction to either new or old patrons of the Lyceum, will have the principal role of Arthur Humington, and the other members of the company have been keyed up for "Just and Justice" in the following roles: Ralph Omerod, Donald Grey, Gustav Gilliland, Wallace Howe, Deborah Edwards, "Miss" Mrs. Humington, Marie Davidson, Mrs. Gilliland, Margaret Marlon, Ron, Colombari, Yvonne Verry, Eustace, Edna Terry.

The settings will be in keeping with the spirit of the program and the usual Wednesday and Saturday matinees will be features of the week's performances.

Don't expect to make good preserves "hit or miss," they require great care combined with the best materials and exact measurements to insure success.

Kansas, this year will reap four crops of alfalfa.

MORE BIG PRODUCTIONS BILLED FOR THE EMPRESS.

It is announced by the Empress theater management that negotiations are pending for the exhibition at that theater of some of the further big film successes of the present day. Such success has marked the advent of Klaw and Erlanger, the well-known theatrical producers, into the moving picture business, that it has led some of the other of the king of the stage into the same field. William Brady and the Schubert forces have presented some of their greatest stage plays to the movies. In many cases the same famous casts that were used to interpret the adaptation are shown in pictures. The settings of the film productions will in every case exceed the "legitimate" attractions for the exterior world taken on the actual sites called for in the author's book, while in the interior scenes, the sets used in the

Broadway productions will be made use

The Empress for some little time already has been showing the Klaw and Erlanger films on the Wednesday Thursday programs and will continue indefinitely to exhibit these unsurpassed productions. It is expected that the pictures of these other world theatrical magnates will be shown at "Edmonton's premier picture house" also.

"The Last Days of Pompeii," a gigantic film success, perhaps for spectacular features and artistic and historical excellence unequalled in all the history of the motion picture, has been secured to play at the Empress, a special engagement, the definite date to be announced later.

From this the patrons of the Empress and the lovers of the superlative movies can look to a most favorable season of pictures.

Time! "Pape's Diapiesin" will digest anything you eat and overcome a sour, gassy or out-of-order stomach, surely with five minutes.

If your meals don't fit comfortably, or what you eat lies like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of indigestion. Get from your pharmacist a fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapiesin and take a dose just as soon as you can. There will be no sour rising, no belching of unwholesome food mixed with acid stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, nausea, debilitating headaches, dizziness or intestinal griping. This will all go, and besides, there will be no sour food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapiesin is a certain cure for out-of-order stomachs, because it takes hold of your food and digests it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there. Relief in five minutes from all stomach misery is waiting for you at any drug store.

These large fifty-cent cases contain enough "Pape's Diapiesin" to keep the entire family free from stomach disorders and indigestion for many months. It belongs in your home.

MERRY, MERRY MINSTRELS

HERE THANKSGIVING DAY.

The merry, merry minstrels are expected to keep pace with the white man's initiation, but that good old standby, Richards and Trindle's Minstrel company.

This company has been coming here so long that the dramatic effect of the Capital is at a loss to remember the date of their first appearance.

This is the one minstrel organization that seems to keep pace with the taste and cravings of a fickle public. Each season they offer an entirely new program, replete with novelties and surprises, but never get away from that distinctly minstrel atmosphere, so many of their white competitors.

When one goes to a minstrel show, one is not a minstrel show, not a hoarse-podger of musical comedy, vaudeville and what not; and right here let us state this is the keynote of this company's success. If you want to see a minstrel show they will surely satisfy your appetite. For two and one-half dollars you will be entertained with all that the word implies. As the funny man says, "It's a show."

Thanksgiving Day, October 12, is the date of their appearance at the Empire theater. At noon the big parade.

FORBES-ROBERTSON WAS POPULAR YEARS AGO

Sir J. Forbes-Robertson has paid five previous visits to this continent with ever-increasing popularity. The first occasion was many years ago as leading man to Mary Anderson, when he appeared in "Home, Home and Pymonia" in "Pymonia and Gata." as far back as 1885, when he became a prime favorite. His popularity in London as a leading actor-manager, however, prevented his return for one reason or another until 1902, when he was seen in "The Light that Failed," and achieved fame far and wide as Hamlet, which on another visit he was induced to review. Then in 1906 he came with "Cleopatra and Cleopatra" by Bernard Shaw, which he produced over and over, also appearing with great success as Shylock in "The Merchant of Venice" and "Mice and Men" by Madeline Lucette Huxley. His phenomenal success in the "Paying of the Third Floor Back" will now be remembered throughout America.

Y.W.C.A. EXPRESSION AND PHYSICAL CLASS WILL BEGIN MONDAY

The opening of the Y.W.C.A. classes in expression and physical education for the eight-month season will take place at McCauley school on Monday evening, October 5, at 7:30.

The association appreciates the generosity of the public school board in granting the use of the assembly hall for these classes; ample floor space being one of the essentials for efficiency in this work. The director, Mrs. Mary A. Pimlott, is thorough, competent and well qualified for her work—being a graduate of the Comstock school of Oratory, Northwestern University, Evanston, Illinois, where she also took training in physical culture and a graduate of the summer normal school of physical training at Los Angeles, California. Mrs. Pimlott spent the summer months specializing in physical education at Chautauque, N.Y., and returns to her work full of enthusiasm. The association hopes for a large enrollment on Monday night.

THE INSULT WHICH PLACES BERNSDORF OUT OF COURT.

Not much is being heard lately from Count Von Bernsdorf and his "news" department, and this flank movement of the Germans to capture United States public opinion seems to have relaxed into what the Berlin accounts would call a gradual retreat.

Quite possibly the count has discovered that in a country with a free press, in which the publication of anything and everything in the nature of an argument is permitted, the "fixed" horse has no great chance in the grand free for all.

In the psychology of public opinion there is something which those outside the newspaper profession seldom quite understand and which Bernsdorf, by virtue of his journalistic environment, is absolutely disqualified from ever being able to understand. The thing is by no means easy to express, but Abe Lincoln caught a glimpse of it when he emitted his famous gem that you can fool some of the people all the time, all of them some of the time, but not all of them all the time.

The fact is that the publicist who deliberately sets out from a specious premise to make public opinion is as certain to fail as Newton's apple was to fall to the ground. In a free country, where the press is untrammelled, where everyone possessed of a genuine thought finds no difficulty in getting it expressed, the man who attempts to convince the public of something which has no proper foundation of truth, or which ignores the truth at its foundation, is a marked man from the issuance of his first line. The public knows—it does not know just how it knows, but it nevertheless knows—as it reads the cleverest and most beautifully bedecked compilation of persuasive exactly the estimate which the author has placed upon the intelligence of his readers. If he attempts to fool them by ghost-dancing around the real issue, by placing himself in a hypocritical position or by dragging in irrelevant things at his sense that weakness at their own. They may not disintegrate the argument or take the time to dissect the fabric of rhetoric to discover wherein its weakness lies but they do perceive it—instinctly.

The fact is that made-to-order public opinion cannot be bought by the thousand circulation nor can it be manufactured at a price per line. There are many instances in this country and in United States where special interests, in this country and in United States where special interests, have attempted to put forward the psychology of public opinion, have attempted to put forward some fancy argument in their behalf only to discover, after having squandered untold fortunes in the foolish belief that they were fooling the public, that the public has been onto them all the time—bigger than a house.

The explanation is that writing is a writer and a reader. The writer who attempts to exclude his reader from his confidence, or who refuses to place both himself and the reader in their proper relative position at the commencement, has no chance.

That there can be two conclusions from the same premise is, of course, a horse of an entirely different color. For instance, the entire continent is divided just about fifty-fifty on the question of the tariff, which is a reasonable and understandable difference of opinion. Yet the writer who prefaced an argument upon the tariff with a presumption that there was no such thing as the tariff would be recognized by every reader as having insulted his intelligence.

It is something like this that happened to Bernsdorf. He set out in a democratic country to convince a democratic people that a despotism were such as should commend themselves to a democracy. To do so, he attempted to place himself on a plane of easy familiarity with the people of United States. Any newspaper man could have pointed at once to the hopelessness of what Bernsdorf was attempting when he presumed to address the United States upon terms of equality. The triumph of democracy is that the king could not get into the head carriers' union without first ceasing to be a king and establishing his title to be counted a hodgepodge. Bernsdorf, being a bureaucrat, was incapable of appreciating the subtle fact that his patronizing guise of plain-citizen familiarity was an insult which would have placed him out of court in any democratic country in the world. Where he was "in Dutch" was in the fact of the existence of the despotism which he was attempting to defend. He could not get it that this fact. The despotism had an existence of which everyone of the hundred million in United States whom he was trying to convince were absolutely certain. He could not banish it from the consideration of the case, even though he refused to mention it. Bernsdorf arrived at the place where he must justify the existence of this despotism and when he failed to even attempt it, all the rest of what he published was simply a waste of white paper.

Bernsdorf might have had some difficulty in convincing a great percentage of the democratic people of United States that a despotism is right and justifiable. But had he taken this ground, had he frankly admitted himself a bureaucrat and a thorough believer in divine monarchy, he would at least have placed himself in an honest position, cutting him to courteous hearing and he would have founded his argument upon the only ground on which it had a chance to stand firmly. Thus, he might have convinced some. As it is, he convinces no one.

THE AWFULNESS OF THE TRAGEDY IN EUROPE

In the Boer war, over which we have all much exercised at the time, Britain, from start to finish, placed 488,000 men in the field. Of these 5,255 men and 518 officers were killed and the wounded totalled about 21,000.

Present day dispatches telling of five and tens of thousands wiped out in single charges along the Aisne and the Meuse, read alongside the total casualties of the Boer war, give some idea of the deadliness and awfulness of the tragedy in Europe.

JUST PARAGRAPHS.
One good turn deserves another, as General French said to General Von Kluck.

Tourists who have been in the habit of going to Rome to look at ruins will be able to save some railway fare after the war is over. The Germans are preparing a special line closer to the main highways.

"Fruit-a-lives" Keeps Young And Old In Splendid Health

J. W. HAMMOND, Esq., SCOTLAND, O., Aug. 25th, 1913
"Fruit-a-lives" is the only fruit manufactured, to my way of thinking. They work completely, no gripping whatever, and are a plenty for any ordinary person at a dose. My wife was martyred to Constipation. We tried everything on the calendar without satisfaction, and spent large sums of money until we happened on "Fruit-a-lives". I cannot say too much in their favor.
We have used them in the family for about two years and we would not use anything else as long as we can get "Fruit-a-lives".
Their action is mild, and no distress at all. I have recommended them to many other people, and our whole family uses them.
J. W. HAMMOND.
Those who have been cured by "Fruit-a-lives" are proud and happy to tell a sick or ailing friend about these wonderful tablets made from fruit juices. One, a box, 6 for $2.00, trial size 25c. At all dealers or sent on receipt of price by Fruit-a-lives Limited, Ottawa.

POINTS OUT DEFECTS IN NEW ARRANGEMENT OF STREET CAR STOPS

Kindly allow me to take up this space in your valuable paper regarding the new street car schedule.
From month to month and from year to year, we have nothing from the wonderful superintendent of the street car line in Edmonton or from the commissioners except that the line is not right, and the only remedy they have found so far is to limit the stops from every corner to every second corner (especially where no one lives). What a wonderful idea. Why, even the worst mutton-head could do better than deprive the residents of many of the streets from having at least some convenience for which they have to pay yearly as deficits, whether they ride in the cars or not.

Any sane person must know and admit that the new street car line in any city are built for the convenience of as many residents as possible. Why? The street car line is a public utility, and the people to get on and off the cars, the more people will ride in them, or instance, I live on Otter street, and often have to ride only six blocks, namely, to Kirkness street. Well, newly to goodness, if I have to walk to Henry street before I get a car, I might as well walk the other five blocks. By doing more I am saving five cents and showing the new schedule maker how little he knows as to what pays and what does not pay in operating a street car line. If a corporation owned the Edmonton Radial railway, and gave the public and the city the same dirt as we are getting now from the city, the city in the first place would never stand for it. In the second place there would be no upping and booting among the residents of the city. Why should the city try to discriminate one particular street. Take for instance Otter street, where there is one of the best business blocks on Alberta avenue, and the whole block is well settled with fine stores, restaurants and real estate offices on both sides of Alberta avenue.

It is a public utility and the public is paying the men at the head of it. Therefore, the public has a right to demand equal rights to all. If we cannot get it from the few who think they know it all, who cannot be made to do what is right, they have another thing coming. I have spoken to a great number of the residents on the north and south side of Alberta avenue on Otter street and they all agree to wait for the car on the corner of Otter street and if the car does not stop, we walk.

Yours truly,
M. OSTROSKI.

LARGE FINANCIAL INTERESTS START BIG OIL CONCERN

Influential Men in Scotland, Canada and United States Head New Company

CAPITAL $10,000,000; DRILLING AT TWO WELLS Over Thirty Others Carrying on Development—Strikes Expected Soon.

With the fate of Europe in the balance, that continent is naturally the first to be considered. It is not to be forgotten that the oil fields in the Calgary district, in which all Canada was deeply interested before the outbreak of the war, have been crowded out of the public eye by the titanic struggle in which the empire is engaged.

It is encouraging to know, however, that in recognizing their duty on the field of battle, Canadians are not overlooking the fact that there must be no weakening of the effort to develop their own resources. The oil fields in the Calgary oil fields in evidence that, while the war may have quieted speculation, legitimate development is going forward apace. Several wells have already tapped heavy flows of gas, and are yielding now amid favorable indications, and among those familiar with the field a big strike at any time would not be surprising.

The confidence felt in these fields by old-timers of the Calgary district, and by financiers of world-wide reputation, is well illustrated by the fact that a new company, Willow Creek Oil, limited, just recently organized with an authorized capital of $10,000,000, its president is William Pearce, of Calgary, an old-timer exceptionally well informed on the natural resources of Alberta, and an official of the company owning the "Discovery" well, which is already producing. Other influential men connected with the company are William Toole, of Toole, Peet and Allen; J. W. Davidson, president of the Green Lumber company; Thorburn Allen, manager Western Agencies and Development company; Charles B. McKinnon, of Vancouver, Col. A. D. Macfarlane of Vancouver; C. H. Davidson, Jr. of Minneapolis, Minn.; and George C. Howe, Minneapolis. The new company already has two wells in the field, one 1,400 feet and the other nearly 700 feet, with very satisfactory indications. These wells are located about 90 miles south of Calgary and 35 miles west of Macleod.

"WET WASH" IS THE
MODERN WAY TO DO
QUICK AND EASY

Not the Least Improvement of Today Over Old Fashioned Things is
"New Method" of Washing Clothes—Happy Medium Between
Common Laundry and "Do-it-yourself-and-break-your-back"—
Edmonton Institution Last Word in Scientific Cleaning.

The words "wet wash" seen on the side of a delivery van or in some advertisement or neatly posted on some corner bill board, have often brought to the lips of passersby the question: "What in the world is 'wet wash'?"

Some eight years ago, in the city of Philadelphia, lived Antonio Ferrero, an Italian with an eye to business. To him came the idea of inventing some labor saving scheme for the housewife, and the result of his efforts was wet wash. This thrifty son of Italy evolved the idea of saving the mother or wife of the home, the labor and drudgery of wash day. "Was he who asked himself the question: 'Why cannot I do the washing for the women at a nominal charge and return to them their clothes all spot and span and white and ready for the starch and the iron?'

And he did. Antonio Ferrero set the action to the word and started on a very small scale his idea of a 'wet wash business.' And he prospered. For the women of Philadelphia took to his scheme like ducks to water and soon the thrifty Italian had a wet wash business which had grown to immense proportion.

No More Wash Days There
And why? Simply because the women of Philadelphia had found a way out of their usual tiresome wash day, by letting Antonio Ferrero do their work for them in his own way that he had devised at his wet wash laundry.

It was only the matter of weeks or months at the most and then a number of others, equally as anxious to solve the labor problem of the housewife, had started in this new "wet wash" business and soon white.

Special Soda for Hard Water
Owing to the hardness of the Edmonton water, tons upon tons of a special soda are used during the course of a year in setting the water. Likewise the soap used is of a special quality, by special machinery right on the premises, thus minimizing to a great extent the amount of friction and heat, which is used in the process. A modern boiler room and a mammoth tank supply the hot water for the work.

And then from the washers into the drying machines, and on until Madame Housewife's clothes are ready to return, just slightly damp, and ready for the iron.

But women ask, "How about the sending and delivery of my washing, and how soon can I get it?"
Just as simple as day and night. Let us suppose you are of a special kind, the new method of laundry known as wet wash. First, you phone up the laundry, and ask their man to call.

He arrives in a few minutes and will give you a large bag for your clothes; quite large enough, in fact, for a life washing. You fill it with the clothes you want washed and he takes it to his rig, after having attached your name for this bag becomes your laundry ticket and is not mixed with other washings at the laundry, but is kept entirely separate and is washed by itself. In this way there is no danger of lost articles, not of getting lost during that time they put in the earliest possible date, and arrangements have been made for these boys to receive new coats.

The commissioner hopes that some day all boys will get their uniforms as they will be some parades shortly. It is suggested that boys should get uniforms as much as possible—dark blue navy nickers, being more desirable than khaki.

The Women's Aid of the Royal Alexandra Hospital will hold its regular meeting on Monday at 2 o'clock in the A.H. Sainsbury school room. Japan has a yearly revenue of $64,000,000 from government monopolies.

Let us take a visit to a wet wash laundry and see how it's done. Any woman can visit the home of the wet wash in Edmonton, for there is, and hundreds of women are glad of the fact, one place of this kind in the city. Let us go up, say in the morning about 10 o'clock, when the wheels are humming and a score of men are busy washing. For it's all men in a wet wash laundry, you know, and they surprise you how well and how quickly they can do it, for it's all operated by the latest improved machinery built expressly for wet wash purposes.

First of all the building itself is all white and bright and clean as a new pin, and the sort of a place a woman would like to send her clothes. Down one side of the building are a row of windows, are the washing machines, wherein clothes are done, and the same line. These huge machines are a wonderful mechanism in themselves, and whirl water and soap in a most efficient way for some time than an hour till the clothes have been made spotlessly clean and snow white.

WITH THE SCOUTS

Edmonton was visited on Wednesday last by six scouts under Scoutmaster Lewis from Lac la Poudre. They arrived in town after having tramped from Lac la Poudre to Morinville, where they took the train for Edmonton. Their stay in Edmonton was only for one day, but during that time they put in a very strenuous time, and did practically all there was to do. They looked none the less for the purpose of making a stretcher when the body of the little Hansen boy, who had been killed in a recent accident, was taken to the hospital.

CEMENT PLANT TO KEEP ON RUNNING

Orders Pile up for Edmonton Portland Brand and Men Are Needed

WILL WORK NIGHT AND DAY
Secretary States General Outlook Now Better Than Since War Began

J. B. Griffith, secretary and sales manager of the Edmonton Portland Cement company, announced Saturday morning that the 1,400-barrel plant at Port Arthur, 140 miles west of Edmonton, would resume operations in a week or ten days to meet the demands of the trade. A crew of 100 men has been assembled by C. J. Pegg, superintendent in charge. The plant will run night and day, as long as weather conditions permit.

The plant was closed on August 25, when the company had 20,000 barrels of cement in stock. It was expected that the plant would be sufficient stock to supply the trade until next spring, but the company found that more cement would be required. Mr. Griffith said to the Capital in the morning:

"We have been advised that construction work on the Grand Trunk Pacific, the Canadian Northern, the Edmonton, Donaghy and British Columbia, and the Alberta and Great Waterways railroads will continue throughout the coming winter, also that fifty large quantities of cement will be used in various parts of Alberta and Saskatchewan. This trade will require more cement than we have in stock."

"The general outlook today is most encouraging, that at any time since the outbreak of hostilities in Europe. When we closed our plant for the season, six weeks ago, it was thought we had sufficient cement to fill all requirements during the fall and winter. We find now that present orders and the probable demands during the next few months will clean us out. We are figuring on running the plant at least until the end of the year, longer if the weather permits."

Women's Canadian Club.
Members of the Women's Canadian club, admit the rush of many matters, should not forget its patriotic duty, to be held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the lecture hall of the First Presbyterian church.

It is the aim of the club to have those who are not members have been invited to attend.

The musical program of Great Britain, France, Russia, Belgium and Canada, sung by natives of these countries, will be a feature of the meeting.
